

Ground Zero Meets International Development and Aid Organizations

May 22, 2007

Michael Barry, CEO and Art Munro, VP Commercial Affairs were delighted to meet with a number of influential personnel with Canadian Foreign Aid Programs and understand their communication problems.

Discussions with Government representatives such as Robert Moore, Attorney General of Canada, Louise Clement, Director General Canada Fund for Africa, H.E. Abdessalem Hetira, Ambassador to Tunisia and Kayula Siame Head of Development for Zambia proved to be most informative for the company and opened another series of opportunities for the Company.
